

A TRAINED NURSE

After Years of Experience, Advises Women in Regard to Their Health.

Mrs. Martha Pohlman, of 55 Chester Avenue, Newark, N. J., who is a graduate nurse from the Blockley Training School, Philadelphia, and for six years Chief Clinic Nurse at the Philadelphia Hospital, writes the letter printed below. She has the advantage of personal experience, besides her professional education, and what she has to say may be absolutely relied upon.

Many other women are afflicted as she was. They can regain health in the same way. It is prudent to heed such advice from such a source.

Mrs. Pohlman writes: "I am firmly persuaded, after eight years of experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that it is the safest and best medicine for any suffering woman to use."

"Immediately after my marriage I found that my health began to fail me. I became weak and pale, with severe bearing-down pains, fearful backaches and frequent dizzy spells. The doctors prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I would lose my appetite, and frequently become nauseated. I had pains down through my limbs so I could hardly walk. It was as bad a case of female trouble as I have ever known. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, however, cured me within four months. Since that time I have had occasion to recommend it to a number of patients suffering from all forms of female difficulties, and I find that while it is considered unprofessional to recommend a patent medicine, I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I have found that it cures female ills, where all other medicine fails. It is a grand medicine for sick women."

Money cannot buy such testimony as this—merit alone can produce such results, and the ablest specialists now agree that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for all female diseases known to medicine.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of the female organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

The needless suffering of women from diseases peculiar to their sex is terrible to see. The money which they pay to doctors who do not help them is an enormous waste. The pain is cured and the money is saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It is well for women who are ill to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant for many years before her death, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. In her great experience, which covers many years, she has probably had to deal with dozens of cases just like yours. Her advice is strictly confidential.

GIRL BURNED TO DEATH

While attempting to start a fire with kerosene Monday morning, Victoria Peterson, a 14-year-old girl employed as a domestic at the Missouri hotel at Troutdale, was frightfully burned. She was removed to Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, where she died at 12:45 Tuesday afternoon.

The girl had built a fire which almost went out, and she was trying to revive the flames. Unable to do so by fanning it and other means, she seized a gallon can of kerosene and poured the oil upon the fire.

Instantly there was an explosion which blew out the bottom of the can and the burning oil spread over the girl. She was enveloped in flames in an instant. She rushed screaming from the room, but her efforts to escape them only added the flames. Her clothing was burned from her body.

Persons in the house who had heard her screams went to the girl's rescue and succeeded in extinguishing the fire. However, they were too late to prevent fatal injuries to the girl, whose flesh was almost roasted. She is also said to have inhaled the flames.

The accident occurred shortly after 5 o'clock, and the girl was taken to Portland on the first train. She was removed at once to Good Samaritan hospital, where every effort was exerted to alleviate her sufferings.

The girl was employed at the hotel to wait upon the tables, build fires and perform other duties. Her father is a farmer and lives two miles from Troutdale. Her mother is dead. The Missouri hotel is conducted by Mrs. Chas. Rowley.

Centennial of Juarez Observed.

Mexico City, March 21.—The centennial of the birth of Benito Juarez, the great Mexican statesman and liberator, is celebrated throughout Mexico today on an unusually large scale. In compliance with a decree promulgated by President Diaz, the day is generally observed as a legal holiday. Throughout the country all business is at rest and the people are giving themselves up to the celebration of the national hero with great enthusiasm.

Especially grand celebrations are held at Saltillo and other cities in the State of Coahuila. In Mueclova a bust of Juarez was unveiled in one of the public plazas. In Sabinas several patriotic organizations have arranged for an elaborate celebration of the day and the erection of a monument in honor of Juarez.

In Tempico a statue of Juarez was unveiled on the Plaza de la Libertad. The monument, which faces the custom house, is quite imposing.

In Chihuahua the anniversary will be celebrated this evening with a large meeting at the Teatro de los Heroes. Governor Creel will be present and Lie. Jesus Uruteto, the famous orator, will deliver the principal address. In the afternoon a fine bronze statue of Juarez will be unveiled on Juarez street.

In Ciudad Juarez, across the Rio Grand from El Paso, where the great patriot made his headquarters for several years while he was virtually in exile, hiding with a small band of followers in a wretched shack, where the postoffice now stands, the citizens have made special efforts to celebrate the day in an appropriate way and an elaborate program has been prepared for the occasion.

Banner Year for New Jersey Masons.

Trenton, N. J., March 21.—The 119th annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of New Jersey will open here today at the Masonic Temple. In connection with this communication the Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, will hold its annual convention here.

The reports to be presented at the grand lodge meeting will show that during the past Masonic year the Masons of New Jersey have made the greatest progress in their history. At the last annual communication of the grand lodge, in 1905, the membership in the state was found to be 25,000, and the increase during the past twelve months has been about 2,000. In finances too large advances have been made, and it will be shown at the convention that the fiscal condition of the order in New Jersey is better than it has ever been.

Excepting the regular routine work of the annual communications, the election of officers, reports of committees, etc., no matters of great importance will come up for consideration.

Another Filing.

T. P. Hayes, of Woodburn, filed Tuesday his list of petitioners and becomes Democratic candidate for the office of committeeman from Woodburn precinct.
